Biography

A striking, six-footer with model and film star looks, Alison David commands attention with an enchanting, magical stage presence.

She has had an extensive recording career, signed to Polygram, Sony BMG and Mercury Records and championed by various famous artists such as Colin Firth, Pete Townshend (The Who), Dave Stewart (Eurythmics) and Niall Rogers (Chic).

Singing popular music in a soulful way with a particular love for the 70's, Soul, Jazz and Classic Rock, her extensive repertoire ranges from 40's to the present day and her versatility offers clients the opportunity to choose which songs they want to hear.

Alison has an established network of musicians meaning she can tailor make your entertainment package; playing lounge music or getting people dancing, performing solo with backing tracks, with a duo, or a full band, she also plays in a 9 piece Northern Soul Band and a live retro house music band. With the ability to be both emotive and uplifting, those people who have met her or seen her perform will find it hard to forget her.
